Miss Lucy McCaughrin, Pres. Miss Elizabeth Dominick, Secretary.

On the Main Line.

Minnaugh announces the fact in this paper that he has the main line and has all the other boys side tracked. Be that as it may, Minnaugh is certainly selling goods cheap, and his low prices are moving the goods. Give him a showing before buying.

Work in S quiet Chapter

Mr. J. E. McDonald, of Winstboro, Grand High Priest for South Carolina, and Mr. Edw. W. Parker, of Columbia, are in the city. They came up yesterday to assist in conferring the Royal Arch degree upon those who have recently gone into the chapter at the reorganization of Signet Chapter R. A. M.

Death in Columbia

Lucy McIntosh, the little two and a half year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McIntosh, of Columbia, died yesterday morning. Their many relatives and friends in Newberry extend to them their heartfelt sympathies in this their saddest hour of affliction.

A Big Time with the Masons.

Friday night was certainly a red letter night in the history of Amity Lodge No. 87, A. F. M. Eight were raised to the sublime degree, and it would be hard to confer the degree in a more perfect manner than was done in Amity Lodge Friday night. The hall had been prettily decorated for the occasion and after the conferring of the degree a sumptuous spread was served through the kindness of the Master, Mr. Otto Kletner, much to the enjoyment of the members and their visiting brethren.

Messrs Henry A. Meyer & Son, the new bakers presented Amity Lodge with a most beautiful cake, decorated with the emblem of the order, the square and compasses. The visit of District Deputy Grand Master Gaffney, was also enjoyed. Altogether it was a grand time for the Masons.

Death in Lexington.

The sad news was received in Newberry on Monday of the death of Mr. Benjamin Rawl, a most excellent and highly respected citizen of Lexington County. Mr. Rawl had many relatives and acquaintances in Newberry County who will regret to learn of his death. His remains were buried yesterday at St. John's church, near his home in Lexington County.

Baseball News.

The regular college team has disbanded for this season, but the boys have been having some sport with picked nines from the different classes. On last Friday the Preps and Freshmen played a game which resulted in a victory for the Freshmen by a score of 9 to 10. This afternoon the Freshmen and Sophomores will play a game. The batteries will be Harris and Cabanis, and Simpson and Werts. Go over and witness the game.

A Strawberry Festival.

The ladies of The Union street A. R. P. Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival next Friday afternoon beginning at 6.00 o'clock. The public is invited. It will be held at the Confederate monument in the rear of the court house.

As to Street Sprinkling.

Mr. A. T. Brown, we understand, will call on the merchants and business men this week to solicit subscriptions for street sprinkling. Those who desire the sprinkling and all should, had better confer with Mr. Brown, as we understand that the water commission has notified the city authorities that sprinkling will not be allowed by the city department.

Memoir.

On Sunday, May 11th, 1902, the angel reaper cut off the life of one of the citizens of Prosperity, a member of Grace Lutheran congregation, Mrs. Rosa Lavonia Cannon, nee Singley, widow of J. H. Cannon, at the ripe age of 63 yrs., 3 mos., 8 dys. She was the mother of four children, all of whom are living, one of whom is on the force of The Herald and News. This has been a highly blessed family in that not until death claimed the husband and father four years ago, was the family circle broken. Sister Cannon has been affected with diabetes for a long time and was so thoroughly ripe in the Christian faith that she did not dread death at all. Conscious to the last with a promise from every child to meet her in heaven she fell asleep to awake with the likeness of Christ. She leaves one full sister, Mrs. J. M. Wheeler and three half sisters and three half brothers. Truly for her to die was gain. She was buried by her pastor on the 12th inst. Peace to her ashes. W. A. Lutz.

Want- Others to Know.

"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and cold liver and they are right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred H. Quinby, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pill. W. E. Pelham & Son,
